

SIR WILFRID LAURIER RESIGNS LEADERSHIP

MAYOR GREER TO HAVE PRIVATE OFFICE IN COUNCIL CHAMBER

The regular monthly meeting of the Wainwright town council was held in the chambers on Tuesday evening, October 2nd. Mayor Greer in the chair. Of the councillors there were present, Herb Smith, E.A. Cook, J.W. McQueen and A. Scofield.

Communication was read from Mr. J. Irvine of Calgary representing the claims of a Navy Tag day, to be held throughout the province on October 22nd. The request was that the council cooperate by getting the schools and different women's organizations in time for the work in the Wainwright district. On the motion of Herb Smith and J.W. McQueen the secretary was instructed to communicate with Principal Brodie of the Wainwright schools and other organizations with a view to having the Tag Day on the date suggested.

The request of the Dominion Government for the use of municipal buildings for the purpose of the Tribunal for the hearing of exemptions under the Military Service Law was granted. The council chamber will, when required be the place where the local Tribunal will sit from two to five weeks after the proclamation of the first call to service.

As regards the amount of $200 for the past month, were ordered to be paid. This was in the opinion of the councillors one of the largest amounts the council had to pay for one month. One account needed particular consideration and was consequently left in the hands of the property committee for investigation, and be presented again at the next meeting of the council.

One of the most important items of last night's council was that which makes it possible for the Mayor of Wainwright to have a private office in the council chamber and to have stated hours when he will meet people bearing business to transact with the town. Mayor Greer was greatly pleased with the move as he had often found it most inconvenient to be stopped by citizens on the street corners who had matter relative to the town to take up with him. The Mayor will therefore be in his office a certain number of hours each day in the town hall and all having business with him will go there.

Name plates for the secretary's office, the council chamber and the Mayor's office were ordered to be procured.

The council decided that all people in the town must pay their taxes. A motion was passed authorizing Secretary Pawling to take steps under the Town Act to enforce payment. Anyone not familiar with the provisions of that act should consult it immediately as the council is determined to take this matter seriously.

At this meeting Mayor Greer and Secretary Pawling who were the council's representatives at the Convention of Municipalities held in Calgary recently made brief speeches in which they told the profit of the convention to them in municipal matters. They had some criticism also to make of the way resolutions were handled at that convention and profiting by its mistakes and plans for the better transaction of business by representatives and councils at future conventions of a similar nature.

The appointment of a Deputy Mayor for the ensuing three months then took place. Councillor R. Scofield was the unanimous choice.

A number of the people of Greenhills district attended the concert service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening.

Sergeant Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Turner is a visitor with his parents for a few days. The sergeant is stationed in Winnipeg and is busily engaged in drilling men.

THANKSGIVING

For a few years back it has been the custom of the "Star" at special seasons like Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, to ask one of the local ministers to write a few lines bearing on the subject, which they gladly do. This year the Thanksgiving message comes from the pen of the Vicar of St. Thomas' Church, in which he speaks of the lesson of the fading flowers.

"Now that we have come to 'Thanksgiving', which is so closely related to the Harvest, it might be profitable for a moment or two, to turn aside from the ordinary business of our every day life and ask what lessons may we learn from the flowers, which are so quickly passing away from us with the approach of winter."

"First of all, we may see that these flowers speak to us of BEAUTY. Their design is marvelous. Take almost any flower and dissect it, put it under a magnifying glass, and note well its various properties, its root, its stem, its leaves, its color, its fragrance and you will be forced to admit its beauty and the skill of its Divine Creator."

"It will show you how God works in the small things, just as in the large, just as careful about the wings of the butterfly, as the delicate leaves of the rose."

"This is one lesson, the flowers may teach us in our Thanksgiving reflections. They speak to us of the Love and the Beauty of God, for in Love God created them all." "I suppose, one of the commonest flowers of all is the unpretentious little field Daisy, immortalized by Robert Burns in his well-known poem, 'The Daisy', in which he gives us a highly interesting narrative of the meaning and derivation of words in common use, tells us, that the Daisy means, 'The Days Eye'. In poetry it is called, 'Star of the Earth,' a very pretty designation. And so by the way of constructive argument, we are led on to some little idea of God's Beauty, whose infinite mind designed this little common flower. And we naturally say, if God so much loves beauty in nature, in the commonest things around, how much more will he not love beauty in the life of the soul."

"Once again, these flowers speak silently and eloquently of Trust in God. They have not the same advantage as we. His higher creation—these pretty things cannot know God as we can know Him. They soon fade and perish, yet in their fading with unparallelled beauty. He spares no pains or labor upon them. He made the great sun, under which they bask, and lift up their heads. He, who brings up the little cloud from the sea, and gives them their drink, cares for them too, and knows all about them. These wild flowers, that we speak about are not 'wild' in His eyes, for they are under His protecting care. And so, we teach us Trust, a lesson we all so sadly need in these evil days of war, and when we never know what a day may bring forth."

"Lastly, the flowers are an emblem of immortality. We place the wreath or the cross of white flowers upon the grave of some loved one, in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection to Eternal Life, for as these flowers have their root in the ground, and die down in the winter, growing up anew in the spring, so the buried body has its roots in the ground or in itself and shall rise up in the spring time of Eternity."

"These are just a few lessons of the flowers of Harvest, and may they be to us what they were to the great National Poet, Tennyson. One day while walking with two friends and conversing about spiritual things one of them said to the poet 'what is Jesus Christ to you?' Pointing to a lovely bunch of violets blooming by the wayside, Tennyson replied: 'What the Sun is to those flowers Jesus Christ is to my soul.'"

Rev. H. Wilson, M.A., Wainwright, Oct. 1917.

ANXIOUS HUSBAND HAS WIFE RETURNED THRO POLICE EFFORTS

Mr. Aymer Stevens, of Chautauqua, wired police headquarters here last Sunday that his wife had been missing and no trace of her could be found. She had left home on Friday and not having left any explanation nor returned in a reasonable time he became anxious for her fate. Sergeant Shelton proceeded to institute a search for the woman, visiting Chauvin, Edgerton and Ribstone going to several homes of friends where she might possibly resort. He found that he could trace her from place to place eventually finding her in the Ribstone district. She returned with him to her husband's roof. The explanation of the happening as given by the woman, is that she was visiting friends and neglected to let her husband know.

During his service in France he has met several of the Wainwright boys of whom he says: "they are all doing their bit."

Mr. R. Wilkin of Edmonton was a visitor in town last week in his capacity as piano tuner.

The second Anniversary of the opening of the F. E. Fraser & Co's. store will be held next Saturday.

ADA L. WARD COMING WITH CHAUTAUQUA OCT 20-21-22

A Chautauqua of three days, October 20-21 and 22 is arranged for Wainwright. A local committee of twenty citizens has the matter well in hand. The entertainment will consist of music, instrumental and song, drama, comedies, lectures, all of which are of the highest order and intended to elevate these different branches of entertainment to a very high place.

Those who know anything of the Chautauqua movement speak in the highest terms of its work. It has been drawing large and enthusiastic crowds elsewhere throughout the Dominion. It should prove very successful here and more particularly when we remember that some of the ablest men and women in the company are Canadians. Further detail of the Chautauqua festival will be given later. We would refer at this time to one of the lecturers Miss Ada Ward.

The statement that Ada L. Ward, English war lecturer, is coming to Chautauqua, will be of interest to every Canadian. Her splendid lecture, "Stories from the Trenches" brings a first hand story of conditions in the war zone. No lecturer in the Dominion today is so well fitted for this subject of absorbing interest.

She was chosen as a member of a concert party two years ago under the auspices of Princess Victoria, that was to go to the trenches in France.

Miss Ward became such a favorite with "Tommy Atkins" that shortly after her return to England insistent calls came across the channel, "Send back Ada Ward." So Ada Ward went back, and after two years she helped amuse and brighten the lives of the soldiers on the British line.

It has fallen to the lot of but few women to receive such an insight into the great war. And fewer are the women, or men, who can tell one-half as graphically of these conditions as can Ada Ward. Wonderful stories she brings, tragic, pathetic, humorous, and a wonderful message. Here are her words of a short time ago in Calgary, Alberta:

"I bring you a message from the old country and from France and Flanders, a message of gratitude for the things you have done and the things you have given to us lavishly; for your generous gifts of money; of golden corn, of fruits, of medical and surgical supplies, for your nurses and doctors, and most of all, for what you have given that you have loved so well—those splendid boys, whose names have come to be synonyms for steadfastness, loyalty and devotion."

To those whose boys will never see home again I bring the message that they are still alive, for one cannot stand as I did in Flemish graveyards and not be deeply moved. Their bodies are dead, but their souls are alive, and I would rather sleep in a graveyard in Flanders, in Egypt or Gallipoli, than live under Prussian militarism."

Regular meeting of the Wainwright School Trustees Board will be held on Friday evening in the Board room of the school.

Miss B. Scott, teacher at Greenhills was a visitor in town last Sunday evening and sang a solo in the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. A. Ross from Edmonton is visiting her sister Mrs. R. Kenney for a few days.

METHODIST DEBATING SOCIETY DECIDES FOR MARRIED LIFE

On Monday evening last in the Methodist church the young people met under the Debating Committee to decide the question of the advisability of married life. The subject of debate technically was "Resolved that Married Life is Preferable to Single Life." The affirmative was ably upheld by Rev. R. K. Swenson and Miss M. Peckhold and the negative stoutly championed by Mr. Samuel Leviwaite and Miss R. Douglas.

The judges of the debate were Messrs. J. W. McQueen, Mr. Wiley and Mr. A. Pawling, who awarded their decision on a percentage basis on the strength arguments, literary qualities and presentation of the question. They awarded the honor to the affirmative with a percentage of 57. But judging from the figure obtained by the negative which was 55 per cent. they had difficulty in making their decision, so close was the contest.

The debate, it is understood, was a very interesting one, and at times quite humorous, especially from the negative side. It is hoped however that the decision of the question in favor of the affirmative will have beneficial effects, that results may be obtained.

The next meeting of the Society will be held in the Methodist church next Monday when refreshments will be served.

A GREAT HIT

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal certainly made a hit when they issued their new war map of the European front. It was a great success, and was well received with orders. The map is not for sale at any price, but is given away free to all who pay a year's subscription to that great paper. The price for the full year is $1.25, map included. It is a wonderful value, and it is no wonder they are securing thousands of new readers. Renewals also, many months ahead, are being sent out to get the map now. The map is very complete, and alone well worth the price asked for both paper and map.

HARVEST HOME NEXT FRIDAY

The Harvest Home at Trafalgar choolhouse which was postponed a week on account of the threshing operations will be all the better on that account. Mr. A. E. Ottewill of the University will be present and give a magnificent lecture on the war. The Methodist church choir from Wainwright will give some musical numbers. Altogether a splendid evening's entertainment is assured. Eight o'clock is the hour of opening. Refreshments will be served after the program and a real time is expected. No doubt there will be a large crowd present, from town and district the price of admission 50c. for adults and 25c. for children.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fraser and family motored over to Kitscoty last Sunday visiting Mrs. Shortreed at that point.

Jan. B. Madder also had the distinction of bringing down a couple of geese. One was an eleven and the other a ten pounder.

Mr. Skinner has again been appointed by the town as garbage man. It is hoped that the order of improvement will take place during his term of employment. In many quarters of the town "the stuff" it is reported has not been removed for months.

Mr. R. Wylie formerly an employee at the G. T. P. roundhouse here, is on a visit again last Sunday. He was accompanied by his wife. Mr. Wylie preached in the Methodist church at the evening service, with interest and profit to the congregation. He has entered the ministry, and has a church in one of the states to the south of us.

Mrs. McLeod who has been on a visit to her son Fred here returned to Saskatoon on Monday last.

Death Rate Not So Large

Soldier Has One Chance in Three of Being Killed

The man who goes across the Atlantic to the war does not risk much more than the man who stays at home. A soldier actually, in the war has one chance in thirty of being killed. The average death rate among the army, says a statistician, is one in eighty-three; so actual increases it less than three times.

There is no "game" work about the war, and the soldier is not entered by the big insurance companies and also by the government. Great Britain and France, the statistics of the insurance companies can be depended upon. They are business figures. Those companies with a view to insuring soldiers made thorough investigations of the death rate among Canadian soldiers.

Since the war began, three years ago, Canada, has sent 450,000 men into the war. The British government put them into the thick of the fighting, in the fiercest battles. In one engagement the Canadian Princess Pat Regiment was almost wiped out. They were in the hottest fighting at Gallipoli; and have been in active trench warfare all the time.

in Flanders. And yet only 27,000 Canadians have been killed; of these 1,621 were taken prisoners; and of 45,825 were wounded; 10,000 of these being disabled. So, after three years of war more than 300,000 Canadians are yet alive and fit

Commissioner Andre Tardieu, the French nation, has reported officially to our Secretary Baker that in the early battles of the war loss was 5 per cent, or one in every 20.

China is the only Oriental country where women are allowed to legislate on a par with men. Two of the successful candidates are school mistresses, and the rest are the wives of wealthy merchants.

Since taking their seats the lady legislators have devoted themselves most diligently to their duties, and frequently take part in the debates.

THANKSGIVING
WITH THIS SEASON OF "Mellow fruitfulness" comes our Thanksgiving Day, the festival of the family, proclaimed at Ottawa to be October 8th, 1917. The origin of the festival is well known. Its story is repeated each year as the season approaches. It is something like this: The first year of "Pilgrim Fathers" on this continent, the crops were a failure, the inhabitants of the country, the Indians, were unfriendly, winter and starvation threatened this "Mayflower Band". Consequently the governor proclaimed a day for fasting and prayer. But before the appointed day arrived the colonists awakened one morning to find that during the night a good ship from home had dropped anchor in the harbour, bringing letters, food and medicine for the sick, seeds and roots for the new sowing—bringing also old friends and new colonists. Never was deliverance so dramatic. So the day appointed for fasting was changed to a day of feasting and thanksgiving. Following the suggestion the Government of Canada each year proclaims one day to be set aside for festivity and thankfulness for the bounties of harvest.

For a prosperous country, for a bounteous harvest there should be Thanksgiving as never before. Not only should we be thankful for the many bounties that come to our own land, but grateful that we have enough to spare to help the Allies in their hour of great need of food stuffs. Our land has been blessed this year with beautiful fields of waving golden grain and with abundant supplies of other products. All our railroads are busy transporting these to the markets which will bring us back that which will fill our home with

"Peace and Plenty."
But uncounted wealth, through harvest and mines, through herds and flocks represent the least of our national blessing. Freedom from the ravages of war, glorious liberty, good laws, purer morals are amongst our bounties; Educational facilities of the best; growth of arts and sciences and invention, all are amongst the things which should cause us to ring our glad thanksgiving song throughout the length and breadth of our fair Dominion on Monday, October 8th.

UNJUSTIFIABLE CRITICISM

THE GOVERNMENT OF Canada and their food controller are coming in for a good deal of criticism for their failure to check the greedy enterprise of those who for gain's sake, are helping to increase the cost of the necessities of life. In some respects the criticism may be justifiable, but it is not a pretty hard job they have got on hand. Besides the fact of their failure, if they have failed it is no justification for any supposedly patriotic citizen to decline to do his share in the conservation of food. There is a world shortage of wheat and beef and bacon. These are the commodities most needed overseas. It is to ensure the supplies of these foods and other non-perishable and easily storable commodities that every housewife is being asked to sign the Food Pledge. Canada has abundance of other foodstuffs. By reducing domestic consumption of wheat, beef, bacon and by using substitutes the housewives of the Dominion can give vital war service.

SUCCESSFUL RALLY DAY SERVICE AT GREENSHIELDS

Last Sunday was known as "Rally" day amongst the churches of the Dominion. The people of Greenshields in their Sunday school and church service observed the day with very appropriate programs, the success of which was very marked.

Miss Scott, the day school teacher had the children well trained in their parts and herself took the leading address on "Missions" which was very much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Patterson who presides at the organ not only did her usual part well but had the school house artistically decorated with flowers.

Rev. R. K. Swenerton, was the preacher of the day at the church service and preached an excellent and appropriate sermon.

A special Rally Day offering was taken which was divided equally between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches for Sunday school purposes.

CHURCH SERVICES

Appropriate music and sermons at the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Remember the different hours of services: Morning worship from 11 to 11:45, Sunday school and Bible class from 11:45 to 12:30. Evening worship at 7:30. Rev. Thos. Murphy will conduct the services on Sunday next.

Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be held at Grace Methodist church next Sunday. The church will be attractively decorated with flowers, fruits, vegetables and grain. The subjects of the sermons by the pastor will be "What the Harvest Teaches" and "Our National Thanksgiving". The annual Rally of the Sunday school will be held at 3 p.m. when a fine program of choruses and recitations will be given, and all friends are cordially invited to be present. The choir will present choice selections of music at both services. The service in the evening will be largely of a musical character and will include Gounod's Grand Triumphant Chorus "Praise Ye The Lord" solos by Mrs. Fieldhouse, Miss Parsons and Mr. Swenerton. A mixed quartette by Mrs. Clark, Mrs. J. Wainwright, Mr. Lewthwaite and Mr. Swenerton. A trio, "Save Us, O Lord, From All Evil," by Mrs. Swenerton, and an Anthem, "I Will Bless Thee at all Times."

On Sunday next, October 7th, the special service for the blessing of Harvest will be held in St. Thomas' Church at 11 a.m. and 7:30. There will be two administrations of the Holy Communion, one at 8 a.m. the other at 11 a.m. The beautiful Harvest hymns and Psalms will be sung by the choir and congregation. The church will be decorated with the usual Harvest emblems. There will be a Social, Thanksgiving offertory and the congregation are reminded to place the same in an ordinary envelope, marking it "My Thanksgiving Offertory." The Vicar will preach at both services.

St. Patrick's Heath, on Sunday next, October 7th, the special service for the blessing of Harvest will be held in the church at 3 p.m. Special Harvest Hymns and Psalms will be sung—Preacher—The Vicar.

A Debt Due Japan

Safety of United States is Due to Japan
In receiving the Japanese mission President Wilson welcomed the representatives of an ally to whom we owe more in the past than in the present to recognize the debt which we owe to Japan.

There is no more United States of the country than all other debts not to be repaid. The Japanese mission is a reminder of the debt which we owe to Japan.

It was pointed out by Viscount Ishihara that the truth is that we owe more to Japan than we have taken as a matter of course the fact that we can ship our goods to Japan. We have taken as a matter of course the fact that we can ship our goods to Japan.

Whose Fault?
"What are you crying for, child?" said a man to a woman who was weeping.

POSTUM

Germanic Blood War

Belgian Heroes Say People Ching to the German People.

President Wilson's note being virtually addressed to the German people, it is not surprising that the German people should be so interested in it.

The German believe hard as iron that Germany was attacked and is only defending her existence. Not only do the people believe this, but the intellectuals, doctors and officers with whom I talked and I cannot see the sincerity of their conviction.

When one wonders when some particular truth will penetrate minds so obstinately closed to the truth, one meets a German who will be no convinced of German victory, but many not with a friendly attitude, and the economic situation is ever postponing peace, which has made them conciliatory.

The English are defeated. The French are admitted to be conquered. The Russians are despised as savages. As for the Americans, the Germans maintain they will be of no help to the Allies from a military point of view, but they are more and more terrified at the universal reputation they feel is rising against Germany.

The working classes rally against the military class, the Prussians and the German people. The emperor desires the end of the war by a peace of conciliation, but is thwarted by the military leaders.

Everything Brighter for The Mother Country

Lloyd George's Speech Has Had Great Effect on People.

Under the caption, "Great optimism," the London Times has published the following from its London correspondent: "The fourth year of the war with a new spirit of cheerfulness—different in every way from the optimism of the first year."

Reports from the shipping yards show that the tonnage for 1917 will be the largest in the history of the world. The next year's forecasts indicate a further increase of 10 per cent.

Three Hundred Thousand Autos Used in War

Germany Heads List of Belonging Nations With 100,000 of Them.

There are approximately 300,000 automobiles being used on both sides of the war, not including motor transports to be put in the field by the belligerent nations.

POSTUM

Conditions in the West

Large Number of Cattle and Hogs Shipped Before the War.

If it is not an exaggeration to say that the increase in cattle, hogs and sheep is 75 per cent since the outbreak of the war, the quality has improved almost as rapidly as the quantity.

Beef cattle were the outstanding feature at the Calgary fair, with special emphasis on the Hereford. Alberta now has these bulls of this breed which cost respectively $11,000, $17,000, and $20,000, and score this range in value from $5,000 to $15,000—Cora Hunt in Journal of Commerce.

Bavarians Do Not Love Prussians

The New York Herald publishes the following from Paris: "At 13 years' distance, the relations between the Prussians and Bavarians are so friendly that those who are prisoners here are kept apart to prevent fighting among themselves."

Love Prussians

They were having an argument as to whether it was better to be a Prussian or a Bavarian, and the Prussian was winning.
